

TRANSITION Clean Air Network Launch Summit

Tuesday 24th November, 14:00- 16:30

Zoom meeting link: <https://bham-ac-uk.zoom.us/j/92123636915>

Part 1: TRANSITION Clean Air Network: Policy context

- 14:00 Introduction to the TRANSITION Network Dr Suzanne Bartington, Clinical Research Fellow
University of Birmingham (Network Lead)
- 14:10 Transport policy context and challenges Jason Torrance, Policy Director, UK100
- 14:25 Transport planning for the future
Susan Claris, Associate Director, Arup
- 14:40 Q&A session – questions to be submitted via the Zoom chat function
- 14:50 Break (10 minutes)

Part 2: TRANSITION Clean Air Network: Stakeholder perspectives

- 15:00 Stakeholder introduction and overview Dr James Levine, Innovation Network Manager
University of Birmingham
- Road transport Nick Molden, Founder & CEO, Emissions Analytics
 - Public transport John Birtwhistle, Head of Policy FirstGroup Plc (Bus division) and President of the European Passenger Transport Operators' Association
 - Active travel Robin Tucker, Trustee, Cycling UK, and Managing Director of Red Kite Management Consulting
 - Built and indoor environments Professor Paul Linden, University of Cambridge
- 15:30 Breakout group discussions - all delegates pre-allocated to a breakout group by topic area
A) Road transport; B) Public transport; C) Active travel; D) Built environment
Q1. What are the emerging indoor/outdoor air quality challenges/risks over the next decade?
Q2. Which priority indoor/outdoor air quality research questions need to be addressed?
Q3. Which additional stakeholders need to be involved to address these challenges/risks?
- 16:00 Break (5 minutes)

Part 3: TRANSITION Clean Air Network: Workshop summary

- 16:05 Group feedback – Rapporteurs to report top 3 key challenges/risks from each group (Q1)
- 16:20 Summary – synthesis of cross-cutting themes Dr Suzanne Bartington
- 16:30 Workshop close